UNITY STATEMENT ON KING RECORDS

On behalf of the leadership of the Evanston Community Council, Cincinnati USA Music Heritage Foundation, King Studios and Bootsy Collins Foundation, four core non-profits reviving the King Records legacy together, we are very thankful to the City of Cincinnati and owner of the former King Records studio building for coming to terms to save the building and find a win-win path for all.

Our four non-profits, in various forms since the Rock Hall and City established a historic marker at the site in 2008, have been honored to welcome a growing number of educators, organizations, and champions across the globe for the cause for King on Brewster Avenue in the educating neighborhood of Evanston. We will continue to work together and further develop our partnership with the city to leverage new resources, to not only restore the amazing musical legacy, but also celebrate the unparalleled civil rights history which took place in the building.

We recognize that King Records is still with us and we can choose to be alive with the King thing. We will continue to prioritize King Records artists and legacies as our focal guiding point and inspiration – if we are given the opportunity to act in the sacred Brewster building. We seek to bring new life through King for generations to come and believe that our city's renaissance will only accelerate as we own of our music and civil rights culture. We thank a united Mayor Cranley and City Council for their tremendous leadership and will be available for all decision-makers in the next steps of this process and opportunity.

Humbly,

Ms. Anzora Adkins, Mr. Kent Butts, Mr. Elliott Ruther,
Ms. Patti Collins, Mr. Marvin Hawkins

Excerpts of the Regulation and Bylaws of the Evanston Community Council

ARTICLES VII: OFFICERS

7.01 The officers of the Council shall be President, Vice-President, Secretary, Financial Secretary, and Treasurer. All officers shall be residents of Evanston in the City of Cincinnati.

7.02 The term of office for each officer shall be for two (2) years

7.03 Nominations and elections of officers shall be in accordance with Robert's Rule of order, revised, except that members of the Nominating Committee shall be appointed by the membership of the Council and not by the President, and the president shall not be a member of the Nominating Committee even in an ex-official capacity.

7.04 The President shall preside at all meetings of the council, shall appoint all committee chairs, shall act for and in behalf of the membership of the council, shall act as an ex-official member of all committees with the exception of the Nominating Committee and shall act as official spoke person for the council. The President shall have the authority to sign checks up to fifty dollars ($50.00) in the name of the Council without previous approval from the Executive Board.

7.05 The Vice-President shall assist the President and assume the duties of the President in his or her absence or disability, and shall oversee all parliamentary procedures, records and committees.

7.06 A) The Secretary shall record the minutes of all meetings and see that an accurate list is kept of all the names and addresses of all registered members, block club presidents and board members.

B) The Financial Secretary shall audit and record all liabilities, keep record of all income and present a report of bills to be paid to the Treasurer. He or she shall also prepare the voucher(s) and warrant(s) for the Treasurer once bills have been approved for payment by the Executive Board.

7.07 The Treasurer shall assume responsibilities for the money of the Council and shall report the income and expenses, recorded and reported to him or her by the Financial Secretary, of the Council at each meeting of the Executive Board and membership. The Treasurer shall also be responsible for the compilation and publication of an annual written financial report to the Council membership. Special project accounts shall be set with the consent of Council with special signee when necessary.

ARTICLES IX: ELECTIONS

9.01 Nominations

- 1) Any member may introduce a motion to have a nominating committee selected. This committee will have its own chair.
- 2) The committee's purpose is to present the Council with a list of candidates, for each office. Names for the list may be suggested to the committee by any member. The committee should study the candidates and should find out if they are willing to serve.
- 3) Nominations from the floor may only be given at the meeting of which the nominating committee presents its slate. Nominations from the floor need not be seconded, but they do not hold unless they are.
- 4) Nominations may be closed by the chair or motion from a member. Nominations may be re-opened by a motion from any member. It is not debatable, and requires a majority vote.
- 5) Nominees must be an active member for one year prior to running for elections. An active member means to have attended at least eight (8) Council meetings within the calendar year to be considered.

9.02 Requirements for voting

- 1) Only active members in good standing may vote. This means having membership at least ninety (90) days prior to elections.
- 2) Information to request absentee ballots will be given at Council meetings prior to election. Ballots can only be acquired by members in good standing.

9.03 Voting results

- 1) After all votes are tallied, results given, questions answered, ballots must be placed in a sealed container, endorsed by two (2) persons, and maintained by the chair of the committee.
- 2) If needed, a recount of ballots may be asked for by a candidate within ten (10) days of the election. Three new counters will be asked for.
- 3) All ballots must be destroyed.

9.04 Installation of Officers-elect shall be held on the third Thursday of January

- Check the curb and street for trash. Pick it up (If you have sewers on your street, remove trash and yard waste).
- Spray for weeds in the cracks of sidewalks.
- Encourage children to dispose of trash properly.
- Feel free to remove weeds and trash from neighborhood flowerbeds. They belong to all of us.
- Feel free to water neighborhood flower pots.
- Gather your neighbors and friends. Do your own clean ups. Let us know so we can help!
- Share or trade plants with your neighbors.
- Report vacant/abandon properties that need maintenance. Call 513-591-6000 or visit "Fix it Cincy" online.
- Dispose of mowed grass in brown yard waste bags or compost instead of blowing it to the street.

You are invited to join the Community Conversation for the future of Evanston

Chair, Ten Year Plan
Evanston Community Council

What do you want to see for the future of Evanston?

We will be working with at least 20 residents and stakeholders from Evanston who will host a community conversation with a group of their neighbors or people they know from Evanston. The community conversations will focus on strengths and assets (things that are going well), your experience living in Evanston, and what you want to see in the future.

These conversations are the first step in a neighborhood plan kicking off in Evanston. Neighborhood leadership from the Evanston Community Council and the Community Building Institute at Xavier University are teaming up, with support from the Greater Cincinnati Redevelopment Authority, to create a resident-driven plan for Evanston's future. We need your help in hearing from every part of the community.

Listed below are names attendees and streets represented in July training meetings:

Thurs. July 16 participants:

Anzora Adkins (Council President) • Drew Asimus (Chair of Evanston Business Association) • Michael Baer • Annette Bell • John R. Davis (Chair of the Evanston Ten Year Plan) • Georgia M. Brown (Council Secretary) • Leroy

Hopkins • Tony Lewars • John Lewis • Leticia Ortega • Carol Owens • Gregory Stewart • Ms. Travis • Chadashah Yisrael • Yah'El Abiyah Yisra'el

Sat. July 28 participants:

Anzora Adkins • Nia Baucke • Melinda Chappell John R. Davis • Audrey Dumas • Roxana Hawkins • Adelyn Hall • Yvonne Jones • Gwendolyn Madaris • Melanie Moon • Casey Nelson • Venice Shephard • Gregory Stewart • Brandy Tidwell • Veta Uddin (Chair of Beautification and Parade)

On July 16 and July 28,

The following streets were represented among participants: Beech Hill, Blair Ave., Bonaparte Ave., Clarion Ave., Crane Ave., Dana, Dexter, Evanston Ave., Fairfax Ave., Fairfield Ave., Fernside Ave., Kinney, Montgomery Rd, Newton, Ruth, Woodburn

How can you lead a conversation ? - The Evanston Community Council and Community Building Institute will host one more training sessions for community conversation hosts on Tuesday, August 21, 6-8pm, Evanston Recreation center . The training will provide tips for hosting the conversations, including questions and methods for recording themes you hear in the conversations. We will also talk about how to recruit your neighbors and friends, and provide support with scheduling and snacks to provide during the conversations. Ohio Laborers Apprenticeship Program

Are you interested? or

Tell someone you know !

Laborers – formally known as Construction Craft Laborer – are involved in nearly every construction project. The Laborer is often the first craft on the project and the last to leave. The type of work performed will depend on your knowledge, skill level and the type of work needed at a job site. You may build and repair roads, highways, bridges, tunnels, construct residential and commercial buildings, clean up hazardous waste sites, or perform other kinds of work. Additional tasks may include: drilling, blasting, building scaffolding, preparing and cleaning up a job site, laying pipe underground, placing concrete, flagging and controlling traffic on roadways, working-with other crafts and much more. From small one day jobs to massive multi-year construction projects, Ohio Laborers do it all.

How do I prepare for the trade?

- Do you want to make real money now?
- Do you question the actual value of a traditional four-year college?
- Would you like the opportunity to work outside and not be stuck in a cubicle?
- Do you want to be part of a team that has your back?

How do I qualify?

- Must be at least 18 years of age
- Must possess a high school diploma or GED
- Must be in good physical condition
- Must have a valid driver's license
- Must pass a drug test – Drug-free

What are the program specifics?

- Probationary period - 6 months
- Starting pay - 60% journeyman wage
- A minimum of 144 classroom related training hours each year. You will practice and develop what you learn in the classroom with a skilled journey worker(s) for 4,000 hours of on-the-job learning.

Cincinnati King about King Records!

Cincinnati King shines a spotlight on the revolutionary King Records music label and its Queen City roots. It will run from Nov. 3-Dec. 23 in the Shelterhouse Theatre, Playhouse in the Park 2018 Season. Tickets can be purchased online starting July 16th or by calling 513-421-3888. Based on hundreds of interviews, the story traces the groundbreaking rise of music pioneer Syd Nathan and the artists he produced, the music he created and the enemies he made along the way. The show shares behind-the-scenes tales of King Records hits including "The Twist," "Blues Stay Away From Me," "Fever" and "Need Your Love So Bad."

Playhouse in the Park is located in Eden Park on the edge of Mt. Adams, if you're utilizing a GPS device, the street address is 962 Mt. Adams Circle, 45202. Convenient parking is available in the Playhouse garage and can be reserved in advance by calling the Box Office at 513.421.3888. This is strongly recommended as parking may be sold out on the day of the show, and parking space is extremely limited in Mt. Adams. Garage parking is $8.50 when reserved in advance ($10 in December) and $10 on the day of the show (if available).

Evanston Academy Career Awareness and Exploration

Evanston Academy has always been a school of high academic performance and high academic expectation, however this year we will be launching a new program focus, Career Awareness and Exploration. This initiative was designed to expand programming for neighborhood schools by added a specialized program. Moving forward we plan to incorporate real world experiences and hands on exposure to our students by engaging and empowering them with the tools needed to be successful after leaving our school and most importantly knowing that they can be anything they want to be !

Evanston Academy and the Evanston Community Council will be recruiting ten Evanston Academy students and alumni to serve as 2018-19 Evanston Emerging Youth Leaders.
